Texas Annual Conference

Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Sixty-Fourth Annual Session.

HERALD PRINT, PALESTINE.

EDITOR'S NOTE.

An explanation of the delay in the issuance of this Annual has already been given in the Advocate and it is not necessary to reproduce it here.

The Minutes are as nearly correct as they could be made under the conditions. There are no serious errors. The following corrections are made:

On Joint Board of Finance the name of B. W. Adams should be B. W. Allen.

The Statistical Tables have four incorrect figures in them, caused by printer failing to note correction.

Chappel Hill Female College Trustees are those reported by Board of Education, and omitting those published in Minutes of 1902. I could not tell which was the correct list, so took those reported by the Board.

In the assessment for Church Extension for 1904, Calvert District was assessed $449.50. I changed this to $450, in order to save putting in a column for cents, as it was the only assessment containing cents.

These Minutes are based on the Secretary's Minutes and the Statistical Tables and reports of Committees, and are correct. No one can go behind them and make corrections. I feel quite sure you have a faithful report of the proceedings of the Conference.

The half-tone cut of Bishop Duncan is a very inferior one, but it is the best one obtainable.

Any Brother who failed to send me his address need not complain if it is incorrect.

The address of Rev. A. P. Bradford is Nashland, instead of Sour Lake. His card was received too late to get proper address in Minutes.

The cost of publication will slightly exceed the appropriation. I had no instructions nor authority to abbreviate, except in the matter of Memoirs, which I did, except in two instances.

My thanks are to the brethren for their kindness and courtesy.

Fraternally,

Gus Garrison, Editor.

Reports of Boards, Committees, Resolutions.

Editor's Report.

DEAR BRETHREN—The cost of the Conference Minutes for the last issue was as follows:

Paid printer $330.00 Paid distribution, expressage, $47.45; postage, $29.32 76.77 Paid incidental, telephone, $8.95; interest, $11.11 20.06
Total$426.83 Fo pay this, I received— Bal. from last year's appropriation for Minutes$ 3.40 Bal. over cost of engravings
Deficit$145.50

To meet this deficit, I made requests of the Presiding Elders, and they have collected and paid as follows:

Huntsville District, $12.50; Calvert District, $19; Brenham District, $16; Palestine District, $15; Beaumont District, $5; Tyler District, $18; Pittsburg District, $5; total, $90.50; leaving still due $55, which amount I respectfully request you to appropriate from the several Boards.

The extra cost of the minutes was occasioned by the fact that the full proceedings were given.

The statistical tables, which are the most expensive part of the Minutes, were one-third greater in number. The editors believed that the Minutes of the first session of the Greater Texas Conference ought to be as nearly full, complete and accurate as possible, and in making this such, the cost exceeded the estimates.

My transfer from the Conference makes it necessary for me to resign the editorship of the Minutes, and I hereby offer such resignation. I thank the brethren for all the love and kindness shown me in the years past, and trust that in the providence of God I may be one of you again before a great while. May the richest blessings of God be with the Texas Conference!

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. HOTCHKISS.

December 2, 1903.

Report of W. H. M. Society.

DEAR BRETHREN—In compliance with the wish of the General Board of the W. H. M. Society, and the courtesy of the Bishop and Annual Conference, I make the following report of the Texas Conference W. H. M. Society:

The number of women and girls reported is 6,553, with 87 auxiliaries having 1,595 members. This includes 12 new auxiliaries organized since March. Total number of meetings held, 1,002. "Our Homes," the official organ of the Society, has 589 subscribers.

The Missionary and charitable features of the work are represented by 13 boxes of supplies; 9,776 visits made to sick and strangers; 718 needy persons relieved, and 2,703 garments distributed.

The literary and spiritual items are: One hundred and thirty-five pledged to tithing, 218 cottage prayer meetings, 100 taking reading course.

Having the heart and hand in line, the finances are not lost sight of, as the following shows: Dues, $703.82; connectional work, $303.30; local Missions, $914.80; expended on parsonages, $2,027.32; expended on local churches, $4,342.25.

Parsonages helped by Conference Society: Cedar Street, Tyler, $75; Woodville, $50; Waller, $100; Travis, $75; total donated to parsonages, $300; total for all purposes reported to Conference, $8,591.49. This report covers only two quarters, the fiscal year of the W. H. M. Society being from March to March.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEORGE CALL, Cor. Secy.

Report of W. F. M. Society.

Brethren—In Palestine, last June, the women of the East Texas and Texas Conference Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies held their first joint meeting.

At this meeting the Societies became one, to be known as the Texas Conference W. F. M. Society.

The spirit of this gathering was delightfully harmonious, showing to the world what manner of women compose the Woman's F. M. S.—Loyal to the Church, even though it hurts; and the work from that meeting until now has been patterned after the Golden Rule; so much so that it seems there never was even an imaginary line between us. Do not understand me to say that since this union we have been meeting no difficulties, nor discouragements, for such is not the case; far from it. The difficulties and discouragements have arisen in hordes, but to some extent we have overcome them and are making progress.

Since we have united, we have organized eight auxiliaries. Three having disbanded, leaves us an increase of five. This increase represents an increase of 48 members.

There has also been an increase of 59 subscribers to the W. M. Advocate, and 31 to Little Worker.

This increase has been in Calvert, Huntsville, Beaumont, Tyler and Palestine Districts. Having been organized about 25 years, we regret there is in Pittsburg District no auxiliary, but we are working and expect next Conference to report our work organized in every District in the Conference.

Houston, Marshall, Huntsville, Calvert and Brenham Districts are very well organized, and those auxiliaries that are in the other Districts are sowing good seed, from which we expect abundant harvests.

Our women are loyal members of the church, and desire to work in co-operation with the pastors, for without the pastors' help little can be accomplished; and you know it takes two at least to work in co-operation. We always conform to the pastors' wishes, never organizing where or when he thinks best not to do so.

Miss Mollie Ivey of Calvert has, since our Palestine meeting, offered herself for the foreign work, and is now in the S. B. and T. School, preparing herself for the work.

Miss Rogers, our Missionary candidate from Marlin, will finish her course in the Training School this year and be ready for the foreign field.

Miss DuBose, our third candidate, completed the first year's course at the Training School, and was anxious to again take up the work, but God took her home in November.

The indications are of advancement, and we ask our pastors to lend us a helping hand, and will prove ourselves worthy. Try us and see.

MRS. C. B. HOOPER, Cor. Secy.

Report of Committee on Episcopal Residence.

Brethren—Whereas, Our Annual Conference is already committed by affirmative vote at our last session to the building or the purchase of an Episcopal residence in Dallas, Texas; and

Whereas, The property suitable has already been purchased in Dallas by the Committee to which the interest was committed by the Texas Annual Conference, and assessment made on our pastoral charges of an amount equal to 5 per cent of the salaries of the pastors;

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, reaffirm the action of the last Annual Conference; that we concur in the assessment made, and recommend that the assessment of 5 per cent be paid in two equal annual payments by each charge which has not already paid its 5 per cent, and that the first payment be made early in the Conference year upon which we are about to enter.

J. B. K. SPAIN, Chmn.

W. F. PACKARD, Secy.

Report of Committee on Publication of Minutes.

We, your Committee, appointed to submit a plan for the publication of the Minutes of the Annual Conference, recommend the following:

1. That the amount of $325 be appropriated for the publication of the Minutes, and that the Joint Board of Finance be instructed to assess this amount against the several Boards of the Conference on what may appear to them to be an equitable basis.

2. That the Rev. Gus Garrison be elected Editor and Publisher of the Minutes, with instruction to publish 4,000 copies.

Resolution, Texas Children's Home Society.

We are glad to have in our midst Rev. I. Z. T. Morris, Manager of the Texas Children's Home Society, an undenominational institution which has for its object the relief of the helpless orphan.

That we esteem him very highly in love both for his work's sake and for his own great sympathetic heart; and that we will help him to gather up such homeless children as cannot be placed in our Orphanage, and can be placed by him in childless Christian homes, where they may be blessed and at the same time be a blessing.

C. R. LAMAR, E. W. SOLOMON, J. B. K. SPAIN, JNO. E. GREEN.

Report of Committee on Books and Periodicals.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals is pleased to report that the communication from the book agents shows your publishing house, both at Nashville and at Dallas, to be in a hopeful and prosperous condition. Texas Methodism is conveniently and efficiently served by the house at Dallas. The net sales from all departments of both houses for the year ending March 31, 1903, is a little more than $439,000, showing an increase over the preceding year of $16,000, and a net profit of $36,000. We have $914,500 total assets with a capital of $898,000.

From these great enterprises of the church there are going out upon the market books and periodical publications which for mechanical execution, moral worth and cheapness in price are hardly surpassed by any other similar institutions. The establishment of a publishing house at Shanghai, China, by the united efforts of the M. E. Church with that of our own, gives cause for gratitude and hope. It is the seed-sowing that shall, we trust, under God's grace, yield a great harvest for the Master in that far-off land.

Your committee notes with pleasure the increasing circulation of our periodical literature and of the growing number of books sold.

The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, maintains its long and well established high grade. The new editor, Dr. Geo. B. Winton, is fully meeting the expectations of his friends and the demands of the Church. The sprightliness, variety and freshness of the editorial work specially commends the paper to its readers, and leads us to say that the mantle of Dr. Hoss has fallen upon worthy shoulders. As the general organ of the Church, no preacher can afford to be without it, and it should, as far as practicable, be placed in every Methodist home.

We call attention to the Methodist Review. The literary reputation of its contributors, the variety of interesting subjects treated and, above all, the departments of its versatile and discriminating editor, Dr. John J. Tigert, make that journal equal to any of its kind, and vastly superior to all others for the uses of Methodist preachers and Methodist people. Any attentive reader will frequently, if not always, find that a single issue is well worth the price of a year's subscription.

Your Sunday School literature is ably meeting the purposes of its publication in every department. We call special attention to the Sunday School Magazine as a very necessary aid to the study of the lessons.

The Epworth Era is worthy of a wider circulation, and we join in the request of our book agents that an effort be made by preachers and people to put it on a paying or self-supporting basis.

The change from the Review of Missions to "Go Forward" receives the hearty approval of your committee, in that it puts the Missionary news in more attractive and less expensive form. Every one who would keep alive in his heart the great cause of Missions, should read this excellent publication.

The Texas Christian Advocate not only holds its own in circulation and favor, but is increasing in both. Under the leadership of the indubitable editor, Dr. G. G. Rankin, the Texas Advocate is wielding an influence for good, and against sin and evil of every kind, that is truly gratifying to every faithful servant of the Lord, as well also as to every lover of justice, sobriety and good citizenship. We especially commend the bold stand of the editor in the fierce conflict now going on in our great and beloved State against that gigantic enemy—that "Murder General," as our own Wesley calls it—known as the liquor traffic. Upon other questions also of public interest the Advocate has done valiant service. Your committee heartily agrees with the Joint Board of Publication that the Texas Christian Advocate should have at least 50,000 subscribers among the 200,000 Methodists in the State of Texas.

Your committee believes that information in every special line of Church work is necessary to the development of a full Christian experience, and therefore would urge that as far as possible our people supply themselves with all our current Church periodicals; but, above all, the Texas Christian Advocate is the one indispensable paper to all who would become intelligent, and keep abreast of the work of Methodism in Texas.

Resolved, First. That we pledge anew our loyalty to and patronage of our publishing house at Dallas.

Second. That we will endeavor to be more diligent in the circulation of our current literature, and in the introduction of good books among our people.

Third. That we especially emphasize the importance of putting the Texas Christian Advocate into every Methodist home, and, as far as practicable, into every home in Texas.

J. L. MASSEY, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Sunday Observance.

The greed of gain demands seven days of toil. The inordinate love of pleasure asks that Sunday shall be made a day of frivolity, drunkenness and lust. Ninety per cent of those who have come to us in recent years are from the land of the holiday and workday Sunday, and thousands of native-born Americans join with them in violating our Sunday laws in the name of liberty. If we are to change these tendencies and preserve our American Sunday, the good people must unite and do earnest battle for it. We must be true to our laws, our history, the best interests of our people and the command of God.

We recognize the good work done in this country by the "Sunday League of America," and we stand ready to co-operate with this league in its great work of awakening and educating the people on this matter of Sunday observance.

We have examined literature of this league recently published, and believe it to be valuable to that end.

We accede to the proposition of this society to set apart each year a "Lord's Day week," in which to preach and pray and stimulate special interest in Sunday reform.

The Sunday law must be obeyed in our State, and where it is evaded or ignored, we must do our utmost to quicken public conscience and insist on officers enforcing the law.

Every toiler ought to have his day of rest and self-improvement, and we pledge ourselves to help all we can to develop such conditions as shall restore the Sabbath to our State and Nation.

Our Texas Sunday law prohibits horse races, ten-pin alleys, circuses and theaters on the Sabbath Day, and we see no good reason why it should not prohibit baseball games, beer gardens, Sunday picnics and Sunday excursions, and we recommend that our preachers and laymen unite in a persistent effort to influence legislation, by every laudable means, to this end.

The Sunday excursion, the Sunday baseball game and the Sunday picnic in the name of an "All day singing with dinner on the ground," are among the popular desecrations of the Sabbath in our territory. We should make unceasing war on these desecrations until public sentiment will influence legislation against them.

We recommend the election of Rev. Sam R. Hay and Rev. J. T.

Smith as delegates to the "World's Sunday Congress," to be held in connection with the Louisiana Exposition next October.

(Signed) A. J. Weeks, Chairman. G. W. Riley, Secy. For Committee.

Report of Board of Education.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

Encouraging reports come to us from our University. We are furnished, however, with no statistics except from the Correspondence School. We note with pleasure that while this department is only a little more than one year old, it has on its roll 252, eight of whom are members of the Texas Conference. The advantages of this school are appreciated most by those who fully understand its workings. We have, therefore, appointed Rev. Nathan Powell to furnish to undergraduates of this Conference information as to the opportunities and benefits offered by the Correspondence School.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

It is with much pleasure that we note the progress of our central institution, and that the present year has every indication of being one of the very best in its history. We call your special attention to some advanced steps that have been taken. The charter, which is more than 30 years old, provides for the establishment of both medical and theological schools. These have both been established. The Medical School, located at Dallas, has every indication of becoming a great medical college. The clinical advantages are said to be very superior; 40 leading physicians of Dallas constitute the faculty. The enrollment this year is very encouraging. Dr. H. A. Bourland has been appointed to make a canvass of the city of Dallas to raise funds to erect suitable buildings. He also solicits pupils in connection with his work as North Texas Conference Secretary of Education. Your Board urges the Conference to remember that this medical college is an organic part of the Southwestern University. The Theological School had the remarkable attendance of 300 at its last session. We hear nothing but the very best reports of the work accomplished. The officers in charge are exercising untiring energy to procure the very best talent for lectures and instructors for the coming session. We most heartily recommend this Summer Theological Institute to undergraduates, and to those desiring post-graduate work. Those who take the Correspondence course at Nashville will be furnished tuition at half price. The Conference is asked to indorse this work by sending one member from each Examining Committee to Georgetown to assist in the examinations, and to count the same valid in lieu of the examination at Conference.

We are glad to note also that there was a successful Summer Normal held at the Southwestern University this summer, and while this was the first one ever held at the University, only one other in the State had a larger attendance. Counting the entire attendance at all of the schools of the University the past year, the enrollment was 900.

ALEXANDER COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

The patronage of this efficient training school the past year reached the encouraging figures of 184. The greatest need of this institution is better equipment in buildings. Located as it is in the center of a very prosperous country, it furnishes a great opportunity for Christian education, and to hamper this school by failing to erect suitable buildings, is to neglect a splendid opportunity to advance Christian education.

The Trustees having requested it, we recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. John E. Green as Financial Agent to devote all his time to the raising of $10,000 or more for the purpose of erecting suitable buildings on the campus.

CHAPPELL HILL FEMALE COLLEGE.

The report from this school in its fifty-first session shows the largest boarding patronage in its history. The dormitory is practically full. We note with special pleasure that 13 of the boarding girls are from the city of Houston. Tuition is furnished in the Literary and Commercial Departments; also in Music, Art and Education. Three of the faculty took post-graduate courses last vacation. We are gratified at the good work this school is doing.

We recommend the acceptance of the resignation of Rev. W. A. Sampey as one of the Trustees of Alexander Collegiate Institute, and the election of Rev. I. Alexander in his place. We also recommend the election of Rev. W. F. Davis and John H. Bolton to succeed themselves. We recommend also the election of the following Trustees of Chappell Hill Female College, viz: C. A. Hooper, E. W. Tarrant, J. E. Green,

B. W. Allen, A. J. Weeks, J. L. Massey and W. K. Strother. We recommend the following educational assessment:

Report of the Mission Boards.

The forty-six Missions within our bounds are in reasonable prosperity; many of them have had a year of financial stress, but this condition has not prevented their spiritual life and growth, nor seriously delayed material improvements. The conditions in our various Home Mission fields are such as to inspire great hope, but owing to lack of means we can enter but few new fields. On this account some of our promising fields will be delayed in their development.

The assessment made against our Conference for Foreign Missions is $9000. The assessment for Domestic Missions, including $700 for the German work, was also fixed at $9000. The scale for distribution used last year was used in the present distribution, with two exceptions. The assessments to the various districts are as follows:

	the communication from our Secre-ttention is called to the conditions and needs of Mission work in the home land, together with the outline of the methods now used by our church in pushing forward the greatest work of the church. To one feature of this work we wish to give special emphasis—the circulation of "Go Forward." It is hard indeed to refer to this periodical in extravagant language, or exaggerate its merits in its own sphere.

How any one who loves Missions, and with longing desire prays for the salvation of the world, can refrain from taking and reading this periodical is indeed hard to explain. We join our Secretaries in urging every pastor to give one day to the work of securing subscribers.

This is a small thing for the pastors, but it makes possible for great results for the periodical and the cause of Missions.

WHEREAS, The General Board of Missions is to meet in annual session at Waco next May, bringing so large a number of the leaders and teachers of our church among us, as well as all our Bishops and many of our connectional officers; and

WHEREAS, The other Conferences of Texas have undertaken the gathering of a great Missionary rally at Waco on the above occasion, and have invited us to join them in this work, and also invited us to hold our mid-year meeting in conjunction therewith; therefore,

Resolved, First, That as a Conference we favor this great rally, and pledge our support to any measure that may be adopted to prepare for this great meeting.

Resolved, Second, That as a Conference we concur in the action of our own Board in appointing their Executive Committee as our representatives on the Program Committee.

The Board, by resolution, requested Bishop Duncan to appoint J. B.

Sears Secretary.

The Secretary of your Conference Board assumes responsibility for the following propositions:

The pastor who sends in the largest number of paid subscriptions to the "Go Forward" by February 10, will receive as premium an Oxford Bible. Also the pastor sending in the largest list of paid subscribers by April 10, can have his railroad fare to and from the Missionary rally at Waco in May.

Report of Committee on Prison Reform.

We, the committee to whom was submitted the paper of W. T. McDonald and J. L. Dawson, who are serving among the unfortunate and criminal classes in our State, beg leave to submit the following: We look with favor upon the purpose to organize an inter-denominational society for the friendless, having departments for the prevention of crime, jail and prison evangelism, employment and after-care, and a temporary home for prisoners. That we regard this movement as another open door for service among the unfortunate classes of humanity; therefore,

Resolved, First, That we extend our sympathy and encouragement to the organization of this Prisoners' Aid and Reform Society for the Friendless. Second, That we recommend to our preachers and people that they lend such encouragement to this work as in their judgment they deem best.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

Having noted as carefully as possible the report of Presiding Elders and pastors made on the Conference floor, we are gratified to learn that our beloved Church, in almost all of her activities, has made considerable progress. We note with pleasure that during the Conference year much enterprise has been shown in the work of church building and improvement, an evidence of which is seen in the beautiful structure at Bryan in which the Conference is being held. Our pastors and people seem determined to have, as far as possible, up-to-date church edifices.

We are also gratified to note from the pastoral reports, that the large majority of the charges have the various organizations of the Church, and that they are in full working order.

Your committee note also, with much thankfulness to Almighty God, that a spiritual awakening has largely characterized the work of the year. From almost every section of our large and rapidly developing territory gracious revivals are reported and hundreds of precious souls have been converted and added to the membership of the Church, and this despite the fact that in much of our territory there has been much agricultural and commercial depression.

In conclusion, your committee, having in view the wonderful field we are called upon to cultivate for our Lord, its great material resources bringing thousands of strangers into our midst, foreign born as well as native, desire to submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, as pastors and members of this Conference, devote ourselves more fully than ever to the work of holding and controlling this great territory for our Lord Jesus Christ.

O. T. Hotchkiss, Chairman.

C. J. Oxley, Secretary.

Report of Epworth League Committee.

During the Conference year the number of Leagues has increased from 74 to 82; members have decreased from 3,389 to 2,896. These statistics include both Senior and Junior Leagues.

J. D. Ford is elected Secretary in the place of J. W. Bergin, transferred to the Montana Conference.

The Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That prominence be given the work of the Epworth League at the sessions of our District Conferences.

2. That Tuesday evening before the opening of our next annual Conference be set apart for an Epworth League anniversary.

3. We recommend a wider circulation of the Epworth Era. That the pastors and League officials subscribe for it and urge the entire membership to do the same. The Era is a first-class paper, and indispensable to the highest class of League work. The usual club rate is only 75 cents.

4. We recommend the social feature of the Literary Department. Man is by nature a social creature. This is especially true of the young man and the church or league which supplies him social entertainment, intellectual and Christian in its nature, is the one which has the greatest hold on him and proves the greatest blessing to him.

5. For the Literary Department we recommend the course of study for 1904. We desire to call especial attention to the institute series now being brought out by the central office on the subjects of Church History, Doctrines, Biography, Missions, etc. This being an educational series, touching on questions of vital importance to our Methodism, we urge every pastor who has a League in his charge to take up this work as early as possible in his League.

Respectfully submitted,

G. E. CAMERON, President.

J. D. FORD, Secretary.

Report of Auditing Committee.

Report of Committee on District Conference Records.

The records of the Tyler, Brenham, Houston, Pittsburg, San Augustine and Palestine Districts are well kept. The proceedings of the various Conferences were conducted according to disciplinary requirements. We desire to make special mention of the records of the Beaumont and Huntsville Districts, which are models in every respect. The Marshall District Conference record was not presented to the committee.

Report of Sunday School Board.

We note with great joy and thankfulness the success which has attended the work of our whole Church in the Sunday School Department. From the report of Dr. Atkins, our Sunday School Editor, we learn that there has been an increase in the entire Church during the year of 292 Sunday Schools, and an increased attendance of 50,955, and a corresponding increase in the circulation of our Sunday School literature.

In our own Conference there has been an increase of 10 Sunday Schools, 222 officers and teachers and 3,134 scholars. But while we rejoice in the fact that there has been improvement, both in the amount and in the character of the work which is being done in this department, we are profoundly impressed with the need of still greater improvement, especially with the need of better equipment on the part of those who are engaged in this important work, and we believe that a diligent use of such helps as are found in our Sunday School Magazine, the books in the Study Circle Course, and in such institutes as the discipline directs will be helpful; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will strive to induce all our Sunday School Superintendents and teachers to use these helps.

- 2. That we will hold two Institutes in our Conference bounds during the coming year. One for the northern end of the Conference, to be held at Pittsburg, and one for the southern end at Navasota.
- 3. That R. M. Kelly, H. M. Whaling, John M. King and D. H. Abernathy be appointed a committee to arrange a program and fix the date of these Institutes.
- 4. That $150 of the Children's Day Fund be held by the Treasurer of this Board for printing and such other expenses as may be necessary for the furtherance of the work, and to assist needy Sunday Schools.

We have received from the several Districts of the Texas Conference as follows: Houston, $19.30; Beaumont, $21.44; Brenham, $20.75; San Augustine, $19.55; Calvert, $8; Huntsville, $29.15; Palestine, $16; Tyler, $26.75; Marshall, $14.90; Pittsburg, $20.05. Total, $195.89.

Your committee respectfully recommends that each pastor take a public collection in his congregation for the American Bible Society.

Inasmuch as the several Texas Annual Conferences have regularly contributed to the American Bible Society, and inasmuch as we believe the interest of the cause demands it, therefore we memorialize that Society to place a representative in this State.

Report of Committee on Texas Methodist Orphanage.

We rejoice to hear of the continued prosperity of our Orphanage Home. We are glad to know this has been a year of health, only one case of sickness, and that of a mild type, occurring during the year. There are 110 boys and girls in the Home, about equally divided between the sexes. We reaffirm our lasting obligation to, and appreciation of, the labors of love of the Manager, Rev. W. H. Vaughan and his estimable Christian wife, and regret to learn of the necessity for Sister Vaughan's retiring from its active care. In her retirement the children lose a faithful friend, who, so far as was in her power, stood as a tender mother to these unfortunate wards of our great Church.

We can only hope that in Sister George S. Slover, her successor, that her place may be eventually filled.

The gratuitous services of Rev. R. W. Thompson and Rev. Abe Mulkey, in raising funds for the institution, has contributed much to the prosperity of the Home, and we hereby tender them our thanks for their invaluable services.

The Conference is asked for an increase of 25 per cent over last year for the support of this institution with absolutely no data to show there exists a necessity for such increase. On the Conference last year there was an assessment of $1,800 for the Orphanage, and there was paid the sum of $1,406.45; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That we do earnestly insist that our Directors see to it that in the future a full report is made to us in time for our Annual Conference session, and that this report show in full the amount of money raised from all sources during the past Conference year, together with an itemized statement of expenditures showing amount used for running expenses of the Home, salaries of officers, teachers, etc.—in fact, a plain, businesslike statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Home for the Conference year.

2. We recommend an assessment of $2,250 for the ensuing year, but in view of the fact that we accept this increased assessment, we insist that there be no other and special collections taken or asked for within the bounds of our Conference.

J. B. Turrentine, Chairman.

J. WALTER MILLS, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Temperance.

The position of the Methodist Church in relation to the whiskey traffic was clearly defined by its founder; with the planting of Methodism came an unrelenting enemy to the liquor business.

For many years the Methodists stood alone among churches in open opposition to this arch enemy to all that is good. We are not ashamed of the position boldly taken by Wesley, neither have we cause to blush when the success achieved by his followers to this day is considered.

We most heartily commend the editor of the Texas Christian Advocate for the bold stand he has maintained against the open saloon in Texas. We deplore the tendency in some quarters to bring the local option movement in Texas into politics.

The success of local option in Texas has been marvelous; county after county has gone dry, till now more than two-thirds of the State is under local option; crime has decreased from 50 to 75 per cent where the law has been in force.

We enter our protest and urge all our people to manifest their disapproval of the reckless manner in which certain officials have exercised their prerogative in the matter of issuing injunctions setting aside the will of the people and prolonging the life of the open saloon.

We commend the action of the Texas Legislature in passing a law restricting the sale of morphine and other narcotics.

W. W. WATTS, Chairman.

G. V. RIDLEY, Secretary.

Report of Preachers' Aid Board.

We have collected and turned over to the Treasurer of the Joint Board of Finance, as the proceeds of our interest bearing assets, $150. We very much regret that the amount is so small for such a worthy cause, but it is because the brethren failed to pay the interest on their notes.

T. S. GARRISON, President.

Tom Murrah, Secretary and Treasurer.

Report of Special Committee on San Antonio Rescue Home.

Referring to communication of Dr. Moore, we are glad to know the San Antonio Rescue Home is in splendid condition and is doing an excellent work. We give this institution our hearty endorsement, and extend to Dr. Moore, its agent, a cordial invitation to visit our Conference territory and represent its interests to our people. We also ask our preachers to call attention to this institution, and when they deem it advisable, take collections for the same. We believe steps should be taken by the West Texas Conference to put this Home under the control of the W. H. M. Society, as we believe its best work could be accomplished by their direction.

S. R. HAY, SETH WARD, J. B. K. SPAIN.

Resolutions of Sympathy for Rev. D. F. C. Timmons.

WHEREAS, Bro. D. F. C. Timmons has been sorely tried during the present year by reason of failing health, and has thereby been compelled to take a Superannuated Relation for the ensuing year; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Conference heartily sympathizes with him in his affliction, and prays that he may be speedily restored to his loved employ.

V. A. Godbey, L. M. Fowler, O. T. Hotchkiss, J. T. Smith, Resolution of Thanks.

Resolved. That the thanks of this Conference are hereby sincerely tendered to the good people of Bryan for the most excellent entertainment provided us, and to the pastor, Rev. E. L. Shettles, for his untiring efforts to make our stay in Bryan so pleasant; also to the various churches in Bryan for courtesies extended us.

Resolved, Also we are very grateful to the railroad for reduced rates, to the local banks for courtesies shown the Conference, and to the press for their full and complete reports of our proceedings.

Memoirs.

Rev. George E. Parsons.

Parsons.—Rev. George Everett Parsons was born in DeKalb county, Ala., in 1853; died at the parsonage in Groveton, May I, 1903. He was the son of Rev. John R. and Mrs. Sarah M. Parsons, long and favorably known in the Alabama Conference. George Everett was born in a parsonage. In the full strength of matured manhood and in the very zenith of his ministry he was called from labor to his reward. He was converted in early boyhood; eduacted in Memphis, Tenn.; licensed to preach the gospel in the Methodist Church in 1874, somewhere in Alabama. In 1876-78 he was a student in Bellview Medical College, New York. From 1878-1881 he taught school in Arkansas. In 1881 he was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference, in which he served fifteen years. In 1896 he was transferred to the St. Louis Conference, where he did four years' faithful work. 1900 he was transferred to the East Texas Conference and appointed to the Harrison Circuit, and in 1901-1902 he was appointed to Groveton charge, where he served the church with great success. He was married to Miss Lena Harding in 1894, with whom and her five children the whole church joins in their sorrow and shares in their loss. He has gone home full of good works and his friendly footsteps and hearty hand-grasp and manly face and happy greeting will be known no more among But he went up with a shout of triumph to join the hosts beyond, and will await to hail us, happy at our coming. ant of God, well done; rest from thy loved employ."

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat 'The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on life's parade shall meet The brave and fallen few.
On fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round The bivouac of the dead.

Joseph C. Mickle.

Joseph C. Mickle was born in North Carolina August 8, 1844, and died at Bandera, Texas, July 2, 1903. His preparatory education was in the celebrated Bingham school of his native State. Later he entered the University of North Carolina, but before he had completed his course in that institution he resigned to enlist in the Confederate army, and was a member of the historic body that surrendered with Lee at Appomatox.

About the year 1875, Brother Mickle removed to Texas. the autumn of 1878 he was received on trial in the Texas Conference, and was admitted into full connection two years later. I will not attempt to recite the various charges served by him during his long and useful ministry. Being unmarried, without the cares and responsibilities of a family, he was often sent where work was difficult, where interests were great, but compensation was meager. Such charges were served by him with fidelity and zeal and never a murmur with reference to the hardships involved. More than once he was appointed to positions that were delicate, difficult, responsible, and in every case he proved himself worthy of the trust and equal to the tasks imposed. Bishop Key appointed Brother Mickle Presiding Elder of Huntsville District, which position he filled for four years. In the summer of 1895 he was appointed to fill an unexpired term in the Brenham District and in that work he was continued until the Conference of 1897, when he was again appointed Presiding Elder of the Huntsville District, which charge he served until December, 1900, when failing health made it necessary for him to take a superannuated relation. This latter relation he sustained until he was transferred from the toils and privations of the Methodist ministry into the rest that remaineth for the people No words uttered in this presence and recorded in the journal of this Conference can express the esteem and affection in which he was held by those who knew him best. He was a good preacher, a wise administrator, a faithful and an affectionate pastor, a humble and devout Christian. True, unselfish, courageous, self-sacrificing are adjectives that may be fitly used in describing his character. No man ever suspected him of seeking place or of shirking a task. He was implictly trusted and devotedly loved by those who were brought into closest contact with his life. His removal from the earth is an irreparable loss, but the influence of his life which lingers in our hearts makes it He rests from easier to have faith in God and to love mankind. his labors and his works do follow him.

SETH WARD.

Rev. J. B. Hall.

Rev. J. B. Hall was born in Hancock county, Ga., August 29, 1816, and died August 6, 1903, at New York, Texas, being within a few days of eighty-seven years old. His parents dying while he was yet a child, he was raised by religious relatives. At the early age of eighteen years, he was married to the daughter of Rev. James Hunter. She died in the faith, and in 1880 he was married to Mrs. M. L. Hancock, who also went before him to the better world. He professed religion and joined the M. E. Church in 1833. Soon afterwards he was appointed class leader, licensed to exhort in 1842; licensed to preach in 1846; ordained deacon by Bishop Capers in 1850; ordained elder in Marshall, Texas, by Bishop Pierce in 1855; joined the East Texas Conference at Carthage 1875, and was superannuated at the Conference in Longview 1884. He was seventy years a member of the Church, and fifty-seven years a preacher. In this relation his labors were abundant and exceedingly useful to the Church. He loved the Church and all her institutions, understood her doctrines and heartily embraced them. He was always the support of his vears he served on various missions, circuits and stations. pastor. His home, his money, his influence were ever at the command of his pastor. His devotion to Methodism was heroic. He never had a dollar too good for his Church, he was never too busy to obey her calls. A more ardent lover of Methodism never knelt at her altar. Perhaps the most useful and happiest part of his long life was the period of his local ministry. During this period he served several changes as a supply. As an itinerant he was useful, always leaving a charge better than he found it. Until war swept away his property, his home was open to all. He lived a Christian life and died a glorious death. To the last his Bible was his stay. Well nigh blind for several years he could read but little until within a few days of the end. But now the end has come, he lies upon a dying bed under the weight of eightvseven years, feeble in evry limb, blind in both eyes, still full of faith and the Holy Ghost, declaring the word of God is plainly written on the walls of his room: "Let me die the death of the righteous and my last end be like His."

He joined the Texas Conference in 1849 at Seguin, and for 36

Rev. William Gaston Nelms.

The subject of this sketch was born in Little Rock, Ga., Jan.

8, 1829.

He came to Texas with his father in 1837. He joined the Methodist Church in 1842, under the ministry of W. C. Lewis. He was licensed to preach on Washington Circuit November 24, 1849, by Robert Alexander.

He was ordained deacon at the Conference held in Bastrop 1852, by Bishop Robert Paine. Ordained elder December 17, 1854, by Bishop John Early.

From 1850 to 1885 he served regularly missions, circuits and stations. At the Annual Conference at Austin in 1885 he was placed on the superannuated roll and remained such until his death.

He was married to Miss Cornelia Chrisman in Burleson county, August 10, 1853.

He died in peace at Conroe, Texas, after a very brief illness, September 15, 1903.

This closed a long and arduous, itinerant life—36 years in the active work and 18 years in the Superannuated Relation. His age was 74 years, 8 months and 7 days.

He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his departure. All his children are grown and married.

Bro. Nelms in his early years and prime of life was an efficient minister of the Word, and many were converted and edified under his ministry.

In his last years he was much afflicted, but while thus retired, he was ever anxious to hear and read of the victories of the Church he loved so well. Robert Alexander aided and advised Bro. Nelms much in his youth and young manhood, for which kindness he was ever grateful.

Farewell, Bro. Nelms, till we meet again! Rest from thy loved employ, till the trumpet of God shall wake the sleeping dead!

S. H. Morgan.

David L. Cain.

David L. Cain was born in Tishimingo county, Miss., November 4th, 1860. He was left fatherless at 7 years of age, but was trained by a Godly mother who taught him to love God and his cause above everything. He was converted and joined the Church when a small boy; he was licensed to preach at 21 years of age in Iuka Circuit, Corinth District, North Miss., Conference, July 10, 1801. He came to Texas and was admitted on trial in the East Texas Conference in 1893 and served Grapeland, Mineola, Edom and Garrison charges, the last one for four years, and Canton and Edgewood in 1902 and 1903, until July 10, 1903, when he finished course in the Church militant to enter the ranks of the Church. Triumphant above. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener December 22, 1895, at Texarkana, and elder by Bishop Granbury December 19th, 1897, at Pa'estine. He was married to Miss Fannie Fowler, daughter of Rev. L. M. Fowler, November 9th, 1897, and leaves her with two little children, Marvin 4 years of age and a sweet baby girl, together with his mother, one sister, one brother, four half brothers and hosts of friends and loved ones to mourn his loss.

His ministry was rich and fruitful; he shunned not to declare the whole counsel of God.

He was brave and true to every obligation of life. The people loved and trusted him, and he was worthy. A man of iron nerve and will, yet tender as the love of the Lord that filled his heart-His life was spotless-his record blameless-he wore upon his bosom the white flower of stainless manhood-and upon his open face the sunshine of the skies. It was this that made the little children of Canton, where he died, rob the flower gardens of their wealth of bloom to cover his grave with their fragrant beauty. But he is gone—his voice will not trumpet the sound of the charge of the hosts of God against sin or with tender emotion almost too full for utterance at our annual love feast occasions. His young wife and little ones will miss, oh, so much. All his loved ones will miss him. We will miss him, too, but none, thank God, sorrow as those without hope. He died in full sight of the better land. Weep not, dear ones, we shall meet him again.

"Soldier of Christ, well done, praise be thy loved employ, And while eternal ages run, rest in thy Savior's joy."

J. B. TURRENTINE.

Rev. William T. Melugin.

Rev. William T. Melugin was born in Tipton county, Tenn., near Covington, August 9, 1833, and began to preach at nineteen years of age. He was licensed to preach September 2, 1854. Was ordained deacon October 19, 1856, by Bishop Early in the Memphis Conference, and elder, December 4, 1859, at Palestine East Texas Conference, by Bishop George F. Pierce.

He first joined the Memphis Conference, and was sent to Covington Circuit, one year, and was then appointed to Paducah Circuit. While on that work he was married to Miss Sarah Inge, in the year 1857. His first wife died in Bosqueville, Texas, in 1872, leaving four children, three of whom survive him.

He came to Texas in 1858 and attended the East Texas Conference while in session at Tyler, and was assigned to the Clarksville Circuit.

After this he traveled the Dallas, Bowie, Paris, and Bonham Circuits. He then asked for a Supernumerary Relation on account of his throat, and went back to visit his father and mother. After a year's rest, he was transferred back to the Memphis Conference, where he remained four years. He was transferred back to Texas in 1870, and served regularly various charges until 1897. In 1897 he transferred to the Texas Conference, and was sent to the Lexington Circuit, which he served two years. He was then appointed to Cold Springs Circuit, and served that work during the years 1900, 1901, 1902. At our last Conference, held in Crockett, he was assigned to Naples Circuit, where he died in great peace, August 27, 1903.

Brother Melugin was married twice—the second time to Miss Jennie E. Davis of Milam county, Texas, December, 1873. As the result of this union four children were born to him, three of whom survive him to mourn his loss. He was only sick about five days when he was taken away, but death found him ready and prepared to go to that happy home in the land of rest which God has prepared for those who love and serve him. He wanted to die in the harness and his prayer was answered. He preached with his usual force only a few days before he was taken sick.

In the death of Bro. Melugin we feel that the world lost a good man, a strong, true, faithful minister of the Gospel, and his wife and children a noble, loving husband and father.

Bro. Melugin was not a brilliant man, but a strong, true, earnest and faithful worker in the vineyard of the Lord, and was greatly beloved by his people wherever he labored.

In a letter from Rev. E. L. Armstrong, are these strong words: "No better man has been among us than W. T. Melugin. We all loved him and know where he will be found. In writing of him you cannot exaggerate his purity and goodness."

These forceful words from a dear friend who knew and loved our departed brother so well are a sufficient encomium upon his noble character without adding any words of our own.

"Servant of God well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

W. W. HORNER.

Rev. W. K. Turner.

The crushed rose exhaled a sweeter perfume, the pruned vine bears more and better fruit. It is the strong character indeed that is only nourished by the sting of poverty, the rebuff of constant disappointment, a crushing of fond hopes. Such in shore is the life of the subject of this sketch.

William Kennedy Turner was born January 29, 1824, in Marisborough District, South Carolina. His father was three times married, and he was seventh in a family of thirteen children-When three years of age his parents moved with him to Fay ite county, Georgia, and from there in 1836 to Scovey county. Georgia during which year his mother died, leaving him at the age of twelve years to take a mother's place for six younger children.

His father and mother were devout Christians, and this was his Extreme poverty of the home shut out books, edupatrimony. cation and all that we call the advantages of life. To add to their misfortunes fire destroyed their humble home and all of its contents, its occupants escaping only with their lives. This blow caused the separation of the family. The father was married for the third time and the younger children were again gathered under the parental roof. William went out at this early age not only to win his own way in the world, but also to help in providing for the rest of the family. During his leisure moments he read and studied the Bible—learned to read from its sacred pages. He was converted at the age of fourteen years at Fayetteville camp meeting and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. This was before the separation. His own words best tell the story of his carly experience: "I was divinely impressed when but a boy to go and work in the vineyard of the Lord, and I obeyed, leading in the neighborhood prayer and class meeting." At the age of twenty-five he managed to give himself three month's schooling. Was licensed to exhort in 1850 and to preach in 1852. Admitted on trial at Tallahassee, Florida. Ordained deacon at Madison, Florida, January 7, 1855, by Bishop William Capers. Failure of the Bishop to hold the Conference in 1854 delayed his ordination one year. On January 8, 1856, he was ordained elder by James O. Andrews. In the Florida Conference he served the following works: 1852, Tampa Circuit; 1853, Homesville; 1854-5, Saint John's Mission; 1856-7, Hamilton Circuit; 1858, Ockmulgee Circuit: 1859, Madison Circuit: 1860, Lake City Station: 1861, Bainbridge Station, Georgia; 1862, Newmanville Circuit; 1863, Madison Circuit; 1864, Valdosta Circuit; 1865, Quitman Circuit; 1866-7, Micanopy Circuit; 1868, Tampa Circuit; 1869-70-71, Black Creek Circuit; 1872, Ocala Station.

In these twenty years of faithful service he ran the gamut from the poorest mission to the best station in the Conference.

For 1873 he was transferred to the East Texas Conference, but the transfer did not come in time, so he was without regular work for that year. His transfer was placed with the Northwest Conference in session at Waxahachie, and he was sent to the Owensville Circuit for 1874-5; 1876, Leon Circuit; 1878-9, Wheelock Circuit; 1880 and 1881, Owensville Circuit; 1882, Franklin Circuit, where he organized the Church that has developed into a prosperous station. 1883, returned to Franklin Circuit, and he with the territory was ceded to the Texas Conference.

1884, West Falls Circuit; 1885-6-7, Kosse Circuit; 1888, Headville Mission.

In the fall of this year at Huntsville he was placed on the superannuated list. In his talk, asking for this relation, he said: "I will do all I can, and what I cannot do, the Lord will do for me." Bro. Turner was married to Miss Charlotte Smith of Middleburg, Fla., December 20, 1854. To them were born seven sons and four daughters. The three oldest died in infancy and childhood. One, a grown son, died in 1899, five sons and two daughters remaining are all grown and married, save Joe, who remains with mother in the old home at Owensville.

Bro. Turner was a great preacher. His sermons were thoughtful and soul inspiring. He would become so engrossed with his subject that he would be perfectly unconscious of all else save the message he was delivering. It might be but the simple little country Church, with babies crying, dogs howling and horses neighing, but all unconscious of these his thoughts and language would soar in the very atmosphere of heaven. At District Conference and other such occasions he would carry throngs of people with him in his great flights of spiritual eloquence.

In Texas he never received the appointments that his preaching ability would justify, but faithfully and cheerfully he served the lowly places.

After superannuation he still kept up regular appointments, and held some great revivals, he fought in the last ditch. Too feeble to travel, he preached once a month in his home Church and assisted in the Sunday School until confined to his bed room. Here for nearly a year he suffered the will of God.

His faith was of the type that gave him perfect knowledge-Being asked if his hope of heaven was a sentiment or a real fact, he answered: "Are you conscious that you have the headache? I am just as conscious that I am a child of God, saved by His grace, as you are that you have the headache. It is a fact with me and not a sentiment, and so it is with every man who is saved by the grace of God."

His joy in the Christian religion was of the expressive kind. Even in the valley of affliction he shouted the praises of God. 'A few days before his death Bro. Lewis, a local preacher, asked him of his hopes. Feebly he raised his hand, and looking up, while his eyes filled with tears, he said: "I am all right, Bro. Lewis, all right, ready to meet my Master's call," then, pausing a moment again, he added: "Of course I would rather stay and be with my friends longer, but I am clay in the potter's hands, if it is the will of my Master for me to go now, I am perfectly resigned, God's will be done."

August 23rd, 1903—it was the Holy Sabbath day. The shades of evening had gathered when the soul of this grand old man took its heavenward flight, but his memory still lives to bless the earth.

Rev. F. L. Allen.

Another faithful member of this Conference has gone from our ranks, and has answered roll call in the Great Conference above.

Frederick Lowery Allen was born of Christian parents in the State of Georgia, February 5th, 1835, and died at his home in Rockdale, Texas, August 1st, 1903.

He came of a sturdy old stock, and is indebted much to his ancestors for the strong characteristics that made him a strong, manly man. His grandfather, Wm. Allen, was in the Revolutionary War, and was badly wounded in the battle of Yorktown, and was left on the field for dead, but the God who watches over us even in battle and time of need brought him out of his peril, and partial recovery followed; but he never entirely recovered from his desperate wounds, and died in the prime of life. His parents were not converted until after they had resting on them the cares of a family, but from the time of their conversion they were devoutly pious. In a brief sketch of his life, written by himself, in speaking of his early life he said: "My first recollections of my parents as religious people was in a love-feast, at Shiloh Church, in Fayette county, Georgia. I was then about four years old. The strange feature of that scene left its impress on me, as I could not understand how religion made them cry and rejoice at the same time. Thank God I understand it now." It is not strange that with parents who prayed in the home, and rejoiced in the love-feast, and who made so much of religion, that their children felt its power, that he should have been led in early life to give his heart to God. At nine years of age he joined the Methodist church, but even earlier than this he said, he enjoyed religion. When twenty years of age, he felt called to the ministry, but, like many others, fought against duty, and tried hard to escape its behest. He left his home three times and started out into the great West, hoping to leave duty behind, but just as often God's Spirit followed him, and led him back. In 1861 he entered the Confederate army, and for four years he endured the hardships and privations of a soldier's life, and came out of the war without a wound, and with the honors and confidence of his comrades, having been promoted to the captaincy of Company F, Third Georgia cavalry. Of his fight against his call to preach, through all these years of trial, exposure and danger, he says: "No one knows except the called to this work how much intense anxiety and mental anguish I suffered." But at last grace conquered and he made a full and complete surrender to the work in which he lived so long and wrought so well. He was licensed to preach November 11th, 1865, and was at once recommended to the Georgia Conference for admission on trial. When admitted he transferred to the Texas Conference, but reached the seat of the Conference after it had adjourned and was employed by Rev. I. G. John, presiding elder of the Austin District, as supply on the Winchester circuit. From that year, 1866, to the time of his superannuation, in 1901, he was one of the most faithful, active and consecrated members of the Texas Conference. No charge was considered too unimportant to enlist his most earnest efforts; on the circuit, in the station, on the district, he was the same earnest, faithful, painstaking "Minister of the word." He served the following charges: 1866, supply on Winchester Circuit, and reappointed to the same charge for 1867 and 1868; 1869 and 1870 Webberville Circuit; 1871 and 1873, Cedar Creek Circuit; 1874-1876, Bastrop Station; 1877, Austin Crcuit; 1878, Bastrop Station; 1879-1880, La Grange Station; 1881-1882, Huntsville Station; 1883-1886, Calvert District; 1887, Bremond and Reagan; 1888, Danville Circuit; 1889-1890, Cameron District; 1891-1894, Calvert District; 1895-1896, Franklin Station; 1897-1899, Rockdale Station; 1900-1901, Willis Station. At the Conference of that year, after thirty-five years of loyal and uncomplaining service to the church, he was forced by declining health to ask for a superannuated relation, and allow his younger and stronger brethren to push the battle. He retired gracefully and with a Christian spirit, and waited in good hope till the Master called him up higher.

Bro. Allen was married in 1868 to Miss Celinda Whipple, of whom he wrote in his private diary: "A better helpmeet no itinerant preacher ever had." She shared with him the lights and shades of the itinerancy for nearly thirty-five years, and how much she helped him we will never know till we see "face to face." Three children blessed this union, all of whom survive him, his oldest son, Beverly, being an honored member of this Conference. Bro. Allen's preaching was earnest and effective; he spoke with authority, and seemed never to doubt his call or the sacredness of the message that he was commissioned to preach. His ministry was not barren or fruitless, but strong, earnest and successful. The years he was presiding elder were years of widespread revival influence. He led in many a meeting that was crowned with wonderful success, and the districts were wrapped in revival flames from one end to the other.

At the Conference held at Huntsville in 1901, he had to retire from the active work, and returned home to wait for his transfer to the great Conference above. Soon after getting home he wrote for the Texas Advocate a very touching little piece, headed, "I'd Do It Again." In it he spoke of the years he had spent in the ministry, the toils and privations, the hard places and the easy ones; the lack of sympathy, the times of discouragement and misjudgment; what he had given up and what he had suffered for his Lord and Master, and closed by saying, "If I had my life to live over, I'd Do It Again." Blessed heroic spirit, known only to those who serve their Lord and love their fellowmen.

His work is finished. He rests from his labors, and has gained the crown. May we also be ready.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle's fought, the vict'ry won;
Enter thy Master's joy."
